

Christopher Sena, CPA

Senior Partner

Phone: 516-541-6549 | Fax: 516-541-6563 | Email: chrissena@dsjcpa.com

Currently has 32 Years of experience of accounting experience, Chris provides conscientious accounting and tax advisory services to charities, private foundations, schools, and for-profit businesses in a variety of industries including hospitality. He joined the firm in 1990 and made partner in 2002. Before launching his career as a CPA, Chris worked in a supervisory capacity for US Trust Company.

He finds satisfaction in helping individuals and organizations conquer complex situations and admires the efforts of the people he works alongside at DSJCPA and the remarkable results the firm achieves on behalf of its clientele.

A strong proponent of giving back to his community, when he's not putting out fires for his clients, Chris serves as member of the Bayport Volunteer Fire Department, proudly upholding a family tradition as both his father and uncle were firefighters.

Little Known Facts About Chris

Likes to Vacation: Anywhere warm.

Loves: Italian fare but he hates onions and olives.

Favorite Teams: NY Giants and NY Rangers.

In a Word, Chris is: Honest & Committed.

Sports He Enjoys: Chris played lacrosse while attending Gettysburg College where he majored in management. As father to four young athletes, he has enjoyed coaching youth football and watching his kids compete and grow.